ANU BOOK AWARD

Purpose of the program

Each year the Australian National University (ANU) may offer an award known as the ANU Book Award (the award). The Conditions of Award for the ANU Book Award can be found at <https://www.anu.edu.au/study/scholarships/find-a-scholarship/anu-book-award>.

The objective of the award is to support and assist students facing financial hardship to purchase books which are essential to their studies. Recommended reading materials may not be covered. Funding for this award has been provided by generous ANU alumni.

Successful applicants will be notified of their outcome and will be able to pick up the book(s) from the ANUSA office.

Eligibility Criteria

Students must meet all of the following criteria to be eligible:

- (a) is a domestic or international student;
- (b) is enrolled full-time (18-24 units) in a single or flexible/vertical double undergraduate degree program at the ANU; and
- (c) can demonstrate, through an application, their financial need and requirement to purchase essential reading for a course/s.

Selection

Selection is made on the basis of meeting the eligibility criteria and those considered most in need by the selection committee.

The award will be offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Manager, Student Experience & Career Development, which will also include representatives of the ANU Students' Association (ANUSA).

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit.

How to apply

1. Complete this application form. Clearly answer all questions and provide as much details as possible.
2. Provide proof of enrolment (available on ISIS under "Letters")
3. Provide the recommendation of the book in course outline or communication by the course convenor.
4. Provide bank statements for the last 30 days. Statements are required for all accounts both in Australian and overseas banks in order for applications to be considered.
